

Mission Statement:

The Somerset Historical Center (SHC) interprets, for citizens and visitors, the everyday, rural life of southwestern Pennsylvania from its earliest settlement through the mid-20th century, placing special emphasis on the impact of industrialization and technology on agricultural practices and lifestyles.